BLAH, BLAH, BLAH 22

All right, first off let me apologize to the following for leaving them off of my thank you list last ish: Beau "Real Man" Smith, (without him we'd be bored, underachievers), the "Real" Al Simmons, Melanje, Bob, the Caliber gang, Dave Sim, Allan and Mike at Sony and everyone else, (I mean you!).

Well, every month we get closer to the debut of the new Spawn toys! The latest faxes tell us that the first shipment of 1995 Spring toys should hit the west coast in mid-February. Remember they will take another few weeks to reach the east. <Here's a tip: production of them will be low.> The 1994 Fall line is still selling great, the numbers for the week before X-Mas were amazing. I guess it's true, everyone waits until the last moment to shop. Be on the lookout for a few "special" versions of the first year's run, which should be hitting the stores right about now. Spawn gets a new "head"?

Overtkill and Tremor "change" colors? Hmmmm....

THE FOLLOWING IS FOR TOY COLLECTORS ONLY: By the way, the Violator figure was shipped in four different variations, all due to the trading card included with them. First out was the Spawn chromium card, then while waiting for the green card to arrive, a few figures shipped with no card, then as mentioned the green Violator cards arrived, and then finally the last variant featured the orange Violator card. I can't give you exact numbers for each, however if you really think about it, you should be able to pick out the rarer editions. Production was then stopped!!!

What has happened over the last month? Hmm... well, everyone had a great Holiday Season. I personally returned to Canada and was able to fill my need for hockey with the World Junior Hockey Championships. I tell you, if you want to drop any Canadian man to the ground fast, just take away his hockey. Don't get me wrong, I love this country and I love working and living here, but I need some Canuck NHL hockey. Let's get this stinking strike over already. You hear me?

Jim Lee's Wildstorm Prods. will be releasing the first ever Spawn trading card set! The set will feature 150 cards and several different chase card levels. But don't despair, they won't be extremely difficult to collect them all. The rarest will feature the first appearance of Spawn in his new costume! Another interesting feature that's inserted are autographed cards by Todd, Jim Lee and Whilce Portacio. All of your favorite artists are in this set doing their own interpretations of Spawn, with some new Toddy art cards, as well.

Well that's all for this month, until next, be good and treat your Mom with respect.

-Terry Fitzgerald
